Section 1 Scope of application

In combination with the examination regulations of the University of Music Lübeck for students of master degree programmes (Rules), these degree programme examination regulations govern studies and examinations pertaining to the Master of Music ‘Musical Practice Music Pedagogy’ degree programme at the University of Music Lübeck.

Section 2 Fields of study

The degree may be completed in one of the following fields of study in combination with an instrumental/vocals major subject:

1. Instrumental and Vocal Pedagogy (IGP)
2. Elementary Music Pedagogy (EMP)
3. Popular Music (POP)

Section 3 Study objective and degree

(1) The study objective is to facilitate training to the level of professional musician with enhanced artistic competence.

(2) Successful completion of the master examination results in attainment of the Master of Music (M. Mus.) degree as an additional professional qualification. The examination confirms whether the candidate has successfully demonstrated in-depth artistic/methodical skills as an instrumental/vocals tutor in the chosen field of study.

Section 4 Degree structure and volume of study

(1) The degree is made up of core and accompanying compulsory modules, which may comprise compulsory and compulsory elective courses. Supplementary modules are selected to achieve the requisite volume of study measured in ECTS credits for the degree programme.

(2) The volume of study encompasses the following number of hours per semester week (SWS). Students' individual study volume may differ from the stated number of SWS depending on the elective elements selected:

Field of study	Volume of study in SWS
Instrumental and vocal pedagogy profile	42
Elementary music pedagogy profile	46
Popular music profile	44
